FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
FORT WORTH DIVISION

Plaintiff,	§	CIVIL ACTION NO.
vs.	§	COMPLAINT – CLASS ACTION
CREDIT MANAGEMENT, LP,	§	Jury Trial Demanded
Defendant.	§

NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiff Arnold Kramer (“Plaintiff”) brings this putative class action against Defendant Credit Management, LP (“Defendant”) under the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (“FDCPA”), 15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq., on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1692k(d) and 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

3. Venue is proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), where the acts and transactions giving rise to Plaintiff’s action occurred in this district, where Plaintiff resides in this district, and where Defendant transacts business in this district.

THE FAIR DEBT COLLECTION PRACTICES ACT

4. Congress enacted the FDCPA to “eliminate abusive debt collection practices, to ensure that debt collectors who abstain from such practices are not competitively disadvantaged, and to promote consistent state action to protect consumers.” Jerman v. Carlisle, McNellie, Rini, Kramer & Ulrich LPA, 559 U.S. 573, 577 (2010) (citing 15 U.S.C. § 1692(e)).

5. “[T]he FDCPA is a strict liability statute—collector ‘need not be deliberate, reckless, or even negligent to trigger liability . . . .’” Walker v. Pharia, LLC, No. 4:09-CV-369-Y, 2010 WL 565654, at *3 (N.D. Tex. Feb. 18, 2010) (quoting Ross v. RJM Acquisitions Runding LLC, 480 F.3d 493, 495 (7th Cir.2007)).

6. “To determine whether a particular collection practice violates the FDPCA, the Court ‘must evaluate any potential deception in the letter under an unsophisticated or least sophisticated consumer standard.’” Castro v. Collecto, Inc., 668 F. Supp. 2d 950, 959 (W.D. Tex. 2009) (citing Gonzalez v. Kay, 577 F.3d 600, 603 (5th Cir. 2009)).

7. “The Fifth Circuit has explained the unsophisticated or least sophisticated consumer standard is meant to protect all consumers from abusive or deceptive collection practices and to protect debt collectors from consumers who misinterpret collection materials.” Id. at 959-60.

8. The FDCPA creates a broad prohibition against the use of misleading, deceptive, or false representations in the collection of debts. See 15 U.S.C. § 1692e.

9. Within this broad prohibition, the FDCPA has specifically forbid the “false representation of—any services rendered or compensation which may be lawfully received by any debt collector for the collection of a debt.” 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(2)(B); see West v. Costen, 558 F. Supp. 564 (W.D. Va. 1983) (holding that defendants violated § 1692e(2)(B) because “there was no legal basis for imposing the service charges. Therefore the service charges were compensation which cannot be ‘legally received’”).

10. The FDCPA also generally prohibits the use of unfair or unconscionable means to collect debts. See 15 U.S.C. § 1692f.

11. In addition to the general prohibition, the FDCPA lists eight forms of conduct that constitute an unfair or unconscionable means to collect a debt including, “the collection of any amount (including any interest, fee, charge, or expense incidental to the principal obligation) unless such amount is expressly authorized by the agreement creating the debt or permitted by law.” 15 U.S.C. § 1692f(1).

12. “[W]hen state law does not affirmatively authorize or prohibit service charges, a service charge may only be imposed if the customer expressly agreed to it in the contract which gives rise to the debt.” Weast v. Rockport Fin., LLC, 115 F. Supp. 3d 1018, 1022 (E.D. Mo. 2015) (citing Pollice v. Nat’l Tax Funding, L.P., 225 F.3d 379, 407–08 (3d Cir. 2000); Tuttle v. Equifax Check, 190 F.3d 9, 13 (2d Cir. 1999)).

PARTIES

13. Plaintiff is a natural person who at all relevant times resided in the State of Texas, County of Tarrant, and City of Fort Worth.

14. Plaintiff is a natural person allegedly obligated to pay a debt.

15. Plaintiff is a “consumer” as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(3).

16. Plaintiff’s alleged obligation arises from a transaction in which the money, property, insurance, or services that are the subject of the transaction were incurred primarily for personal, family, or household purposes—namely, residential cable and telephone services (the “Debt”).

17. Defendant is an entity who at all relevant times was engaged, by use of the mails and telephone, in the business of attempting to collect a “debt” from Plaintiff, as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(5).

18. Defendant uses instrumentalities of interstate commerce or the mails in a business the principal purpose of which is the collection of any debts, and/or regularly collects or attempts to collect, directly or indirectly, debts owed or due, or asserted to be owed or due, another.

19. Defendant is a “debt collector” as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(6).

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

20. In connection with the collection of the Debt, Defendant sent Plaintiff a letter dated November 11, 2015.

21. A true and correct copy of Defendant’s November 11, 2015 letter is attached to this complaint as Exhibit A.

22. Defendant’s letter asserted that the total amount due on Plaintiff’s Debt was $146.12. Exhibit A.

23. Defendant’s letter encouraged Plaintiff to pay the Debt by mail, by going online to its website, or by calling Defendant’s toll free number. Exhibit A.

24. On the reverse side of the letter, Defendant states: “Please note that payments made to Credit Management, LP by means other than over the phone or online (e.g., those sent by mail) will not incur a convenience fee.” Exhibit A.

25. The above statement is the only time Defendant mentions a convenience fee in the November 11, 2015 letter. Exhibit A.

26. Defendant’s website states that a “one-time convenience fee of $7.50, will be added to each scheduled payment” for online payments.

27. For payments made by phone however, Defendant’s website only lists Defendant’s phone number and does not inform Plaintiff whether or not there will be a convenience fee.

28. Upon information and belief, Defendant charges a convenience fee for payments made over the phone, as stated in its November 11, 2015 letter.

29. Upon information and belief, no law expressly authorizes Defendant to collect a $7.50 fee with respect to the Debt.

30. Upon information and belief, the agreement creating the Debt does not expressly authorize Defendant collect a $7.50 fee with respect to the Debt.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

31. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each factual allegation above.

32. Upon information and belief, Defendant's November 11, 2015 letter is based on a form or template (the "Template") that Defendant uses to send collection notices.

33. The Template attempts to charge and collect a fee which is not expressly authorized by law or the agreement creating the individual's debt.

34. Upon information and belief, Defendant has sent the Template to more than 40 individuals in the State of Texas in the year prior to the filing of this complaint.

35. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to represent a class of individuals defined as:

All persons located in the State of Texas to whom Defendant sent, within one year prior to the filing of this complaint and in connection with the collection of a consumer debt, a letter based on the Template.

36. The proposed class specifically excludes the United States of America, the State of Texas, counsel for the parties, the presiding United States District Court Judge, the Judges of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, and the Justices of the United States Supreme Court, all officers and agents of Defendant, and all persons related to within the third degree of consanguinity or affection to any of the foregoing persons.

37. The class is averred to be so numerous that joinder of members is impracticable.

38. The exact number of class members is unknown to Plaintiff at this time and can be ascertained only through appropriate discovery.

39. The class is ascertainable in that the names and addresses of all class members can be identified in business records maintained by Defendant.

40. There exists a well-defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact involved that affect the parties to be represented. These common questions of law and fact predominate over questions that may affect individual class members. Such issues include, but are not limited to: (a) the existence of Defendant's identical conduct particular to the matters at issue; (b) Defendant's violations of 15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq.; (c) the availability of statutory penalties; and (d) attorney's fees and costs.

41. The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the class he seeks to represent.

42. The claims of Plaintiff and of the class originate from the same conduct, practice, and procedure on the part of Defendant. Thus, if brought and prosecuted individually, the claims of each class member would require proof of the same material and substantive facts.

43. Plaintiff possesses the same interests and has suffered the same injuries as each class member. Plaintiff asserts identical claims and seeks identical relief on behalf of the unnamed class members.

44. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class and has no interest adverse to or which directly and irrevocably conflict with the interests of other class members.

45. Plaintiff is willing and prepared to serve this Court and the proposed class.

46. The interests of Plaintiff are co-extensive with and not antagonistic to those of the absent class members.

47. Plaintiff has retained the services of counsel who are experienced in consumer protection claims, as well as complex class action litigation, will adequately prosecute this action, and will assert, protect and otherwise represent Plaintiff and all absent class members.

48. Class certification is appropriate under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(1)(A) and 23(b)(1)(B). The prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members of the class who are not parties to the action or could substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests.

49. The prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would create a risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the class, which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the parties opposing the class. Such incompatible standards of conduct and varying adjudications, on what would necessarily be the same essential facts, proof and legal theories, would also create and allow the existence of inconsistent and incompatible rights within the class.

50. Class certification is appropriate under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(2) in that Defendant has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, making final declaratory or injunctive relief appropriate.

51. Class certification is appropriate under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3) in that the questions of law and fact that are common to members of the class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members.

52. Moreover, a class action is superior to other methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversies raised in this Complaint in that: (a) individual claims by the class members will be impracticable as the costs of pursuit would far exceed what any one plaintiff or class member has at stake; (b) as a result, very little litigation has been commenced over the controversies alleged in this Complaint and individual members are unlikely to have an interest in prosecuting and controlling separate individual actions; and (c) the concentration of litigation of these claims in one forum will achieve efficiency and promote judicial economy.

COUNT III
VIOLATION OF 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(5)

57. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every factual allegation above.

58. Defendant violated 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(5) by threatening to take any action that cannot legally be taken or that is not intended to be taken, including by attempting to charge a $7.50 convenience fee without authorization to charge Plaintiff that amount.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for relief and judgment, as follows:

- a) Determining that this action is a proper class action, certifying Plaintiff as a class representative under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and designating this Complaint the operable complaint for class purposes;
- b) Adjudging that Defendant violated 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(5) with respect to Plaintiff and the class he seeks to represent;
